Discussion Guide

Let's review

At the start of each discussion, review the conversation ground rules for returning and new members alike to set the stage for active participation by all. You may want to use a timer as you go around the room. And don't forget to decide who will take notes and post a discussion recap.

- Be open and curious: Everyone has a unique perspective, so be prepared to hear a different point of view. Listen first, and focus on the facts.
- Be respectful and engaged: Be sure that everyone has a chance to speak before adding a second comment or perspective. Encourage each other's participation.
- Be focused and concise: Keep the conversation centered on the issue and the brief.

The "Table-it" Rule: If the group has gone off-topic but the area is of interest, the group can table the conversation and save it for another time to be addressed in a different manner.

Let's begin

Each member is invited to answer the following questions in a two-three minute reaction to the brief.

- Introduce yourself, and share what "lens of care" did you wear when reviewing this brief (e.g. personal, professional, community, state, nation, global)?
- What did you find most interesting or surprising from reading the brief? What matters?

Let's discuss

Pick 2 or 3 questions that resonate with the group and discuss, or choose your own.

- In your opinion, what is the priority in regards to reducing poverty?
- Were there some points with which you strongly agreed or disagreed? Was there a perspective that was missing?
- What do you think the role of government should be in addressing poverty? What is the role of the private citizen and individual communities?
- Do you think our current social welfare system remains true to Thomas Jefferson's sense of government obligation to the poor in the early American era?
- Is there a right to a basic income or minimum wage?
- What are other ways we can empower and enable people to achieve self-sufficiency?

Let's act
