Join us as an official sponsor of the 2018 Circle Leadership Summit, to be held September 6-7, 2018 in Chicago. This year's annual summit offers a unique opportunity for sponsors to engage with women leaders throughout the country who are taking an active role in policy discussions in their communities and states. We are seeking support from organizations and individuals who share our goal of encouraging women to participate in public policy debate about freedom and free enterprise and to embrace leadership roles in their communities.

The 2018 Circle Leadership Summit will include roundtable discussions moderated by dynamic, inspiring women leaders such as Erin Wolf, Partner and Founder, Suite Track. Conference participants will include over 250 new and experienced Policy Circle leaders nationwide who will participate in leadership training, hear about practical engagement opportunities, make strategic connections, and learn about tools and resources that will help them broaden their influence in their community and state. We greatly appreciate your consideration and look forward to partnering with you.

Sincerely,

Angela Braly
